FOR THE LOVE OF PIZZA!

"When the moon hits your eye like a big pizza pie, that's amore"

An 8 day "pizza pilgrimage" to Italy. Two Departures: May 26 – June 2 & Sept 29 – Oct 6, 2012

Culinary travel company Tour de Forks has launched a new escorted tour for 2012 to Italy called For the Love of Pizza! This 8 day "pizza pilgrimage" will be led by three experts, acclaimed Neapolitan pizzaiolo, Roberto Caporuscio, of New York's Keste Pizzeria & Vino and Italian wine & food experts Michele and Charles Scicolone, authors of Pizza Any Way You Slice It!

Limited to just eighteen participants, the itinerary will include Roberto's native Sperlonga, a small and charming seaside village in southern Italy, Naples, pizza's birthplace and Rome, with a guided tasting tour of its historic Centro Storico and sampling its beloved pizza bianca.

Neapolitan pizza is officially part of Europe's food heritage and this will be a fun – and delicious – adventure with a hands-on pizza making lesson taught by the "master" Roberto and an exploration of Naples while dining at its famous pizzerias. The tour's menu will include informal wine tutorials and tastings and visits to artisanal gelato makers, chocolatiers, bakeries and a dairy farm known for its mozzarella. The adventure will end in Rome with a special farewell dinner.

Price: $4,495 per person, based on double occupancy. Single supplement upon request.
A $500 deposit is required to reserve your space.
